

TASK FORCES

The President may, with Executive Board approval, establish task forces to accomplish specific, short-term purposes. A task force is dissolved when its final report is accepted by the Executive Board. Any task force, which there proves to be an ongoing need, should be considered for conversion to a standing committee.

Previous Task Forces:

- Constitution
- Planning
- Response to Commission on the Future
- LRC Resource Directory